Dr. Napoleon Bonaparte Riley, the Washington county cancer specialist, is in jail in Danville. In a conversation with the INTERIOR JOURNAL reporter, he said that he had cured a number of cases of cancer of long standing in Boyle and Lincoln counties and had thereby acquired a large and growing practice. During his visits, according to his own story, he met Miss Ella Moseley, who resides back of Parkersville in the knobs. Although the doctor is about 40 years of age and has but one eye, he made progress rapidly and his rivals were compelled to "Go way back and sit down." He said they turned green with envy. The other night he called upon Miss Moseley, who is a splendid young lady, and formerly resided in Washington county, and was enraged when he started away to find his horse's mane and tail clipped. Believing that Calvin Altman, a young man in the neighborhood who had been his strongest rival, had committed the deed, the old man went after him with a Winchester rifle and two big revolvers. When Altman opened the door and saw the specialist loaded down with artillery, he refused to come outside, but later swore out a warrant against him. The trial came before Judge Prewitt Saturday morning and Dr. Riley confessed to carrying concealed, deadly weapons, and was fined $25 and given a jail sentence of 10 days. Rolt Moseley, brother of the young lady in question, swore out a warrant charging Calvin Altman with carrying concealed, deadly weapons, and his trial will probably be held this week. Dr. Riley was so ashamed of his horse which he valued at $100 that he sold the animal to Constable Jacob Clem for $20. No evidence could be secured to warrant the belief that Calvin Altman had sheared the horse. Dr. Riley stated that he had cured like Phillips and James Stewart, of Rowland, Lincoln county, of cancer as well as others in that locality.

THANKS—With the change of editors, the people of Mercer county lose one of the best and most pronounced successes in the journalistic field in Kentucky. W. P. Walton endears himself even on short notice to his readers and we are not surprised that the people of Lexington, after having him in that field for a season have made it possible for him to remove there and devote his entire time to his pet enterprise.—Danville News.

He stated he could not conscientiously nor scripturally officiate at such marriages and he is to be highly commended for having the courage of his convictions.

M. H. Gill died suddenly of pneumonia Saturday morning after an illness of less than two days. MR. OWEN MCINTYRE.

Of the Danville Advocate, can "grind out" as much, if not more, readable copy than any of the younger members of the tripart of Kentucky. He has a splendid nose for news and an item never comes to his direction without his getting it. He is making the local columns of the Advocate fairly bristle with news, while his editorials are always clean-cut and interesting. He is very popular with both sexes, is a hard worker and is as clever as men get to be.

C. L. Pruitt has bought of E. S. Fisher his house and lot in town. Mr. Pruitt will erect a store building on the lot and make other necessary improvements on the dwelling. He will bring his family here in a few weeks.

Despite the inclemency of the weather a crowded house witnessed the Banjo Contest at Keeney's Hall Saturday night. There were three prizes. The judges were Lincoln Wells, J. J. Lucas and Robert Wells. The first and second prizes were won by Frank Lewis and Bailey Briscoe, both of Parksville. William Lambam, of this place, won third prize. Mr. Lewis, the winner of the prize, carried off second honors at the World's Fair, Chicago, in '91, and what he doesn't know about a banjo isn't worth knowing. He rendered several pieces of his own composition. His singing was very good. Young Briscoe, the winner of the second prize, is a student of Lewis' and bids fair to equal, if not surpass, the latter gentleman in a few years.

A good number of our citizens are going to have phones put in their dwellings as soon as the Bastin Telephone Co. can get time to put them in. The good service given by the Lancaster office, with the attentive and untiring Mrs. Maggie Hobbs as office manager, delights all of her patrons and causes others to want to be connected with the exchange, which Mr. Bastin as manager, is arranging to give cheap and extensive service.

PNEUMONIA CAN BE PREVENTED.

This disease always results from a cold or an attack of the grip and may be prevented by the timely use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. This remedy was extensively used during the epidemics of la grippe of the past few years, and not a single case has ever been reported that did not recover or that resulted in pneumonia, which shows it to be a certain preventive of that dangerous disease. For sale by Craig & Hocker, druggists.

Modern Drug Dealing.

The elements that enter into perfect drug service are, we believe, these: Competency, quality, courteousness and a fair profit policy. We endeavor to give all these the fullest expression. While in some things there is a legitimate need of varying qualities, in medicinal drugs there is not. We handle one grade only---the highest---yet our prices are apt to be less than inferior are sold for.

E. C. WALTON.

W. P. WALTON.

In a Candidate for Railroad Commissioner 1914.
3d District, subject to the will of the democracy.

THE Confederate reunion will occur at Dallas, Texas, this year, at the earliest date it was ever held, April 22-25. The ranks of the dear old fellows who wore the gray are being rapidly thinned and each year sees many of the faces of the last meeting missing. It will not be long before the last of them answers to the roll call and rests with Jackson "under the shade of the trees." Every one, therefore, who can attend the Dallas meeting should do so. It will probably be the last of a great many of them and they should give their friends the pleasure of once more beholding them in the flesh. Let every old "Confed" begin now to dust off his gray suit and be ready to march with the "boys" in April, the pleasantest time in all the year in the Lone Star State.

RHODE ISLAND has set a good example in amending her statutes so as to require two years' residence as a preliminary to application for divorce. A sentiment is crystallizing in favor of denial of divorce for causes antedating residence in the State where application for divorce is made. If remarriage of the guilty party to the divorce were added to that a substantial check would be placed upon the social demoralization now prevalent in consequence of the ease with which marriage obligations may be assumed and discarded.

SOME 20 years ago Rev. George O. Barnes preached for months in Breathitt county and converted so many people that lawlessness became almost unknown and the courts had little or nothing to do. Since then another generation has come in which seems more bloodthirsty than the first for there have been 11 killings in the county since Christmas. Evidently another evangelist is needed there.

A RUSSELLVILLE dispatch states that it is the intention of Marmaduke B. Howden to enter the ministry of the Methodist church, South. Changes for the better must have come over "Duke" since he was here last Summer as one of the orators on the business men's train. He wasn't had then, but he wouldn't have passed for a "theolog."

THE Harrodsburg Democrat, under the editorship of Charles M. Lewis, is to return to a weekly publication. We do not think the move is a judicious one, but if Brer. Lewis will retain the services of his splendid local editor, Mr. "Iard" Grimes, we will register no kick whatever, but on the contrary, go on enjoying the excellent paper.

IT is telegraphed from Lancaster that Hon. R. H. Tomlinson is a candidate for lieutenant governor. We have good reasons to believe that there is a mistake about the matter, however, should be run he will have strong backing in Lincoln county, who will fight for the splendid old democrat to the last ditch.

THE president has decided that his daughter is attracting too much attention for one so young and he has called off the trip to the coronation of King Edward. A good conclusion. Too much attention to Miss Alice might detract some from Teddy.

A MULTIMILLIONAIRE Filipino is said to have offered to give $500,000 to each American army officer who will marry his daughters. If the "gals" look any thing at all like creatures, the rich Filipino will soon have sons-in-law to spare.

A LEGISLATOR said to us the other day that he believed that no appropriation would be made for a capitol building this session and that the removal of the capitol will be an issue in the election of the next General Assembly.

THEY do some queer things up in Ohio. At Upper Sandusky the corners of two counties stopped the funeral of a young woman suspected of having been a victim of a criminal operation, and began holding an inquest.

THE Legislature will adjourn one die a week from today. Not a great deal of work has been done, but as what a Legislature fails to do is frequently better than what it does, we suppose there is no cause for complaint.

VERNON RICHARDSON has resigned as city editor of the Danville News and will devote his entire attention to the law. He is an exceedingly bright young man and will do well in any vocation he may choose.

MISS LOTT GREENUP gets crowds for her father, George W. Greenup, candidate for Congress in the First, to speak to by accompanying him and giving selections on her violin.

THE republicans of Louisville are a greedy set. With republican papers like the Post and Commercial they are not even satisfied and there is talk of another to be started soon.

POLITICAL.

The bill to classify the rural free delivery system passed the House.

The Farris anti-cigarette bill was defeated in the Senate by a vote of 18 to 12.

Secretary of the Navy Long resigned and Congressman W. H. Moody, of Massachusetts, has accepted the portfolio.

It is said President Roosevelt will send a special message to Congress setting forth his views on the Cuban tariff question.

The German press, with the exception of the Socialists, praise in highest terms Prince Henry's reception in the United States and his democratic conduct.

Gov. Odell, of New York, has removed the sheriff of Kings county for making a promise before election to appoint a certain man to a position under him.

The Newcomb House bill creating two new circuit judges for Louisville was unanimously adopted by the Senate. The bill is now ready for the governor's signature.

The democrats in Congress are anxious that Aguinaldo and other prominent Filipinos be brought to Washington to present their views of the conditions in the islands.

President Roosevelt has requested the members of the Cabinet not to talk of cabinet meetings to newspaper men. He himself will give out whatever information he may consider proper.

Senator Vest delivered a carefully prepared speech in opposition to the Ship Subsidy bill. He pointed out that England pays no subsidy to her ships and she dominates the carrying trade of the world.

Secretary Root has ordered Gov. Wood, of Cuba, to come to Washington at his earliest convenience to confer in regard to winding up the military government and the establishment of the Cuban republic.

The Senate passed the bill appropriating $15,000 for a State fair and the bill creating the office of assistant Commonwealth's attorney in Jefferson county. The Carroll asylum bill was defeated. The governor's nominations for trustees of the Agricultural and Mechanical College were confirmed. The House passed the Child Labor bill after a lively debate.

The Kentucky Revenue bill passed the House yesterday with one vote to spare. Some expedition will be required to get it through the Senate. The St. Louis Exposition bill was adversely reported, but was ordered to its second reading. Gov. Beckham signed the Double Liability Repeat bill, which thereby became a law. The Senate passed the Asylum Appropriation bills.

NEWS NOTES.

Clayton Wheeler was probably fatally shot by George Murray in Clinton county.

A strike of freight handlers, which is expected to involve 10,000 men, was inaugurated in Boston.

It is said J. Pierpont Morgan will send the yacht Columbia across the ocean to race against anything afloat, boat for boat.

Mail advices report that an entire Japanese army corps, numbering 210 officers and men, froze to death in the snow during a mountain march.

The coroner's jury, after investigating the Park-avenue Hotel fire in New York, has reported that the house was not properly equipped for the safety of guests.

Reports received by the Agricultural Department indicate that the corn crop of 1901 was the smallest, with one exception in 20 years. The wheat crop was one of the largest ever grown.

A list containing the name of every man who plays poker or gambles in any way in Vincennes, Ind., has been prepared by the police commissioners of the town, and, in an effort to suppress the vice, the persons designated will be watched.

John B. Rogers, the police and fire commissioner removed from office by Mayor Duncanson, of Lexington, has taken the case into court. He sues for injunction to restrain the mayor from removing him or interfering with his official duties.

THE Somerset Journal thus jolles the editor of this paper: Replying to our taunt that Miss Cora Jones would become Mrs. Brown right under the nose of the INTERIOR JOURNAL before Ed Walton would "catch on," the JOURNAL says: "Don't you believe it, we were onto the game before the young lady arrived." Now, we verily believe that if Ed is editing a newspaper when the day of judgment comes, he will manage to announce Gabriel three days in advance.

From September 1, 1901, to February 23, 1902, Mrs. L. Kinton, of this city, says the Russellville News, sold from two cows $195.55 worth of milk and butter, besides what was used by the family, consisting of five members. Estimating the value of that used by the family as an offset to the cost of keeping the cows, the net result shows a profit of $32.69 per month.

Madge—She's a great girl after the fellows, isn't she?
Marjorie—Why, that girl would have a man at her feet even if she had to break a shoestring to do it.—New York Sun.

About Drinking.

The temperance question has never been more alive than at the present time, but it seems to have taken on a new form. Dr. Lyman Abbot favors "local option" as the only sane, practical solution of the Sunday liquor problem in New York City. Dr. Isaac, a well-known temperance leader, says that he would not make New York a prohibition city even if he could do it by mandate. He does not believe in an attempt to enforce such a law until the majority of the people are in favor of it. In Great Britain the trend of the temperance question seems to be in a similar direction. The United Kingdom alliance, the most prominent temperance body, shows signs of a wide difference of opinion within its ranks. While some of its members are holding fast to the total abstinence idea, others are inclined to leave the alliance and join hands with any who aim at restricting rather than prohibiting the consumption of liquor.

They say that more people drink, and on the average, drink more than formerly, and yet there is less drunkenness prevalent. They hold that wise restriction conduces not to abstinence but to temperance, that it controls excess and allows sociability without the license of excess. In the same tenor is the opinion of Henry S. Pritchett, president of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. He claims to advocate true temperance and believes that the interests of temperance are better served by treating the question of totalism as a less important matter. He prefers to have students congregate where beer is under control of the institute than to have them go where the use of beer is unlimited. Few questions of the day are as important as this. Since prohibition is impossible, it may be in the best interests of temperance that its advocates seek some practical way that will lead to true reformation and not to hypocrisy and underhanded dealing.

To Cure the Stammerer.

It is said that stammerers rarely if ever show any impediment of speech when speaking in whispers. On this fact a method of treatment has been advocated, which is as follows: For the first ten days speaking is prohibited. This will allow rest to the voice and constitutes the preliminary stage of treatment. During the next ten days speaking is permissible in the whispering voice, and in the course of the next fifteen days the ordinary conversational tone may be gradually employed.

Not to Blame.

She—Saturday is our silver wedding. Don't you think we ought to kill the pig and have a feast?

He—Kill the pig? I don't see why the poor animal is to blame for what happened twenty-five years ago.—London Tit-Bits.

A Way to Kill.

Fashionable Doctor (out for a day's shooting)—Never saw such luck. What's the matter with the birds? I can't kill one of them!

Host—Write 'em a prescription, doctor!

It is stated that when the husband is younger than the wife the offspring is more apt to be a girl than a boy.

MONUMENTS.

White Bronze is to stone in the monument business what the improved drop-head sewing machine is to the old hand method, or the palace car is to the old stage coach. It is the advanced thought of the age. It is indestructible and will perpetuate the records and resting place of your loved ones. It is very beautiful with a frosted silver appearance. Please hold your order until you can investigate it.

TELEPHONE FRANCHISE.

ON SATURDAY, MARCH 22, 1902,

at 2 o'clock P. M., I will offer at public auction in front of the Court House door, a franchise or privilege to construct, establish, maintain and operate a telephone system in the city of Stanford, Kentucky. Said sale is made as follows:

AN ORDINANCE

To provide for the sale of the franchise or privilege to construct, establish, maintain and operate a telephone system in the city of Stanford, Ky.

The City Council of the City of Stanford, Ky., do ordain as follows:

SECTION 1. That there shall be sold to the highest and best bidder for the term of twenty (20) years a franchise or privilege to construct, establish, maintain and operate a telephone system for public and private use in the city of Stanford, including the necessary conduits, subways and manholes, wires, poles, and other equipment, and also the right of way over, along, under, through and in the streets, avenues, alleys, parks, squares, bridges and other public places in said city for the purpose of running the subways, manholes, poles, wires and other equipments necessary to construct, establish, maintain and operate said telephone system in the city of Stanford in accordance with the conditions, terms and limitations of this ordinance.

SECTION 2. That it shall be the duty of the Mayor to offer said franchise or privilege at public auction to the highest and best bidder at 2 o'clock P. M. on Saturday, March 22, 1902, before the Court House door in Stanford, Ky., after having given notice thereof by advertisement for ten (10) days in the Interior Journal, and in which notice he will insert this ordinance, and he will report to the City Council the bids received by him for its approval; and the said City Council reserves the right, for and on behalf of the city, to reject any and all bids for said franchise or privilege, and in case the bid reported by the said Mayor shall be rejected by the city council it may direct, by resolution or ordinance, said franchise or privilege to be again offered for sale from time to time until a satisfactory bid shall be received and approved, or accept any of the bids offered, in its discretion.

SECTION 3. Before the said franchise or privilege shall be vested in the bidder whose bid may be accepted by the city council, a contract shall be entered into between the city and said bidder setting out the terms, conditions and limitations upon which said franchise or privilege shall be granted and containing stipulations necessary to protect the city and to require of the bidder fulfillment of said conditions and limitations; and the city council reserves the power to insert in said contract such stipulations concerning the time in which the work shall begin after the acceptance of the bid, and the price to be charged for telephone to its subscribers, the time at the expiration of which said telephone system shall be in operation, the manner and places in which said poles shall be erected, how much of said wires shall be placed under ground and at what points manholes shall be constructed, and such other conditions and limitations as the said council may by ordinance direct.

SECTION 4. That the franchise or privilege provided in this ordinance when said contract is entered into shall not be construed as being in any way exclusive, or as preventing the city council of the city of Stanford from providing for the sale of similar franchises or privileges to other persons, companies or corporations; and this limitation shall be inserted in any contract entered into between the city of Stanford and such person, corporation or company.

SECTION 5. This ordinance shall take effect from and after its passage and publication as required by law.

Passed by city council, March 4, 1902.

FOR rent or sale, the house vacated by E. C. Walton. Good stable and garden. Apply at this office. FIDDLERS wishing to enter the contest at Mt. Xenia Tuesday will write to W. L. Dawson, Stanford, Ky. THERE was a wholesale runaway in town Saturday afternoon, but we are glad to say nobody was hurt. MANLY ALBRIGHT, of Brodhead, writes that he will give an old fiddlers' contest on Saturday night, March 29. FRIENDS of William Hamilton, the jeweler, will find him well fixed for business at 29 West Main, Lexington. THE Junction City State Co. has erected a substantial business house and factory on the site of the old Wilborg-Hanna mill at Junction City. THE merchants and others here who went into it have decided to quit issuing Benefit Script but of course they will redeem all script that is now out. WANTED.—50 horses and mules, 4 to 8 years old, fat and ready. I will be at W. S. Drye's stable, Hustonville, Ky., on Wednesday and Thursday, March 12 and 13. Joe Jordan. THE Grand Leader Dry Goods Co. had a bad day for their opening Saturday, but they did a very good business notwithstanding. Their store was thronged with buyers all day yesterday. ROBBER.—Mr. S. E. Owseley's house was entered a few nights since and some $10 or more taken from the pockets of his pants, which hung near his bed. Some valuable papers are also missing. McMULLIN.—E. H. McMullin, aged about 55, died near Waynesburg Saturday morning, after a long confinement to his room. His wife died some five years ago, but two sons are left to mourn a kind and indulgent father. Mr. McMullin was a consistent member of the Baptist church, a strong democrat and a good citizen. C. L. PRUITT, of Hustonville, who bought out Jones & Wheat at Middleburg, sends us a nice order for stationery. In his letter he says he has purchased a home in his adopted town and will build a store-house at once. He is well satisfied with his prospects and his many Lincoln county friends hope he will make money. A CHANGE of schedule has been made in the star route between Stanford and McKinney. Mail now leaves here at 9:45, or 15 minutes earlier than formerly and arrives at McKinney at 1:30. Returning it leaves McKinney at 2:15 P. M. and is due to arrive here at 4 P. M. L. F. Smith, the mail carrier, has a good vehicle and will carry passengers at a very reasonable charge. WE hope the sad fate of Mrs. Charlotte Lee, of Wareaw, Ind., will not have a tendency to make the good women of Stanford cease to petition the giver of all good and perfect gifts. While Mrs. Lee was kneeling in prayer her clothing caught and she was burned to death. This is only one woman in many millions who has met such a sad fate while doing that which the good book directs.

LOCALS.

ROOMS for rent over Higgins & McKinney's store. WANTED, a few nice hams, shoulders and sides. John P. Jones. WAGON harness, collars and all kinds of plow gear. J. C. McClary. ODD sets of plates at very low prices to close. See them. Geo. H. Farris & Co. WILL sell millet hay at 35c per 100 pounds for a few weeks to reduce stock. J. H. Baughman & Co. THE Buffalo Oil Co., A. B. Florence, president, and L. R. Hughes, secretary, had a quarter page advertisement in yesterday's Louisville Post. ALL ministers of the gospel are requested to sit on the stage at Walton's Opera House tonight during the lecture of Mr. Tate. Geo. L. Carpenter. THE Hutchins Oil Co. began to bore Friday on their lease in Knox county near Bailey's Switch. J. L. Hutchins, the general manager, went up yesterday to remain a few days. E. C. BOGGS, Nicholasville, bought the assigned stock of merchandise at Valley View of Cooby & Carpenter for speculation. Good location for some one. Big lumber center besides Lock 45 building. A COSTLY head-on collision occurred between two freights near Shepherdsville Monday morning and No. 23, due here at 12:52 P. M., did not arrive until 7. Nobody was killed in the wreck, but several trainmen were more or less hurt by jumping. EGGS.—Mr. J. K. Ashley, of McKinney, is going to deal extensively in eggs and will pay the highest market price. He is well recommended by citizens of his old home at Nashville, Ill., and refers merchants and others here to the First National Bank of Stanford. SHERIFF OWENS did not sell his delinquent tax list yesterday because of an error in the date advertised. Our types made the date read Monday, March 11, when of course it should have been "10th." The sale will occur April court day if all of those advertised don't liquidate before that date. A CORRECTION.—In our court report last issue we stated that in the case of Mrs. G. A. Swinebroad versus the executors of Greenberry Bright, concerning a legacy, the jury found for the "plaintiff" when we should have said "defendants." It is monstrous easy for mistakes to creep into print, but we hope we have done nobody harm this time. HILTON.—James Hilton died at his home near Hayden's Switch early yesterday morning and will be buried at Goshen this afternoon. A wife and several children survive the good husband and father. Mr. Hilton was a member in good standing of the Livingston Maccabee lodge and a number of his brothers of that order are down to attend his burial. Rev. W. E. Arnold will preach the funeral, after which the Maccabees will take charge of the body. IN order to get our papers to subscribers earlier we changed the hour of publication from 9 A. M. to 3 P. M. Tuesdays and Fridays some months ago, as our readers well know, but the change did not bring about the desired result and in a short time, probably next issue, we will go back to the old hour. It suits us much better to print in the afternoon, but if our patrons prefer a morning paper and can get it more regularly, as well as conveniently, a morning paper we'll have. We are going to please our readers, no matter what expense or trouble is incurred. IN the county court yesterday Mrs. Mary C. Burnside's will was probated. It divides her property equally among her three children except a gold watch is given her grand-daughter, Kittle Huffman. Miss Mary McAfee's will, also probated, orders that her home and personal property be sold and the money be loaned at interest, her brother-in-law, Henry Clark, to receive the profits during his life time. After his death A. B. Simpson, the New York missionary and christian alliance advocate, is to be the beneficiary. She names H. J. Daret as executor and W. T. Smith and Miss Emily Dudderar are witnesses to the instrument. The will of Higgins Kelley, leaving his property to his son, Frank Kelley, was also disposed of. CIRCUIT COURT.—The case of Alex Martin, administrator of his son, Walter Martin, against the Cumberland Telephone & Telegraph Co., on trial when we went to press Friday, resulted in a verdict for $5,000. Mr. Martin was killed by lightning while in the porch of Isaac Hamilton's store at Rowland and plaintiff claimed that lightning left the telephone wire, which was attached to the building, and caused Martin's death. The suit was for $20,000. Ellen Craig, charged with forging Mrs. J. W. Alcorn's name to an order to H. J. McRoberts' store, was given one year. Jack Downey, charged with forging a pass on the L. & N., had his case demurred on a technicality, but was held over to the next grand jury.

LANDRETH's garden seeds at W. B. McRoberts'. DON'T forget that we carry best assortment shown of embroideries and laces. John P. Jones. D. M. FERRY's garden seed in bulk and package. Best assortment we have handled. Higgins & McKinney. SPRING has come, gentle Annie, and it looks like Judge Bailey was right when he said the backbone of Winter is broken. DON'T fail to hear Hon. James A. Tate, of Nashville, at Walton's Opera House tonight. Everybody invited. Admission free. DEMOCRATS WON.—Judge Morrow dismissed the proceedings in the contest for county offices of Wayne, the democrats thus scoring a victory. THE Central Kentucky Real Estate Exchange & Title Co. has a number of choice farms and town residences for sale or rent. See "ad" on fourth page. NOT an arrest for drunkenness yesterday and an immense crowd was in town at court. No doubt about Stanford being the best little city on top of dirt. BUTTERFLY.—The warm sun of Sunday brought out a butterfly, Mr. Henry Blankenship, of the Preachersville section, told us. It was too weak to fly much, however. FOR SALE.—Pair 16 hand hay horses, well matched, work anywhere, double or single; Old Hickory wagon, good as new, and heavy set of harness. Will sell on six months time; good note. Frank McKinney. T. W. NAPIER, of the East End, said to us yesterday that the tree on J. T. Hackley's farm is but a sapling compared to a big sycamore on his place, which measures four feet and two inches in circumference. SOME scamp tried to steal Armp Broadus' horse and buggy Sunday night. He took it from in front of the Veranda Hotel and was driving out Somerset pike at a lively gait when Mr. Broadus overtook him. Seeing that he was in close quarters the would-be horse thief took to his heels. FROM indications at present the largest crowd that has gathered at Walton's Opera House in years will be there to enjoy the old fiddlers' contest on Friday night week, 21st. Following are the entries so far: Stanford, Wm. Cooley; Rowland, Ben P. Martin; Mt. Xenia, Armp. Dawson; Darstown, Alex Martin; Hustonville, Ansel Latham and Tack Nail. WE are in receipt of a neatly printed pamphlet of the Southern Sanitarium and School of Suggestive Therapeutics, Louisville, sent by W. W. Withers, formerly of this place, who is treasurer of the enterprise. The other officers are Dr. W. N. Craig, of this place, president, and W. A. Ross, secretary. Dr. W. H. O'Bannon, also of Stanford, is one of the directors, and Attorney Bill Spaulding is counsel. The school is at 124 East Broadway and the picture shows it to be a handsome building. MAUDE.—When you refused him my hand, paps, did he get down on his knees? PAPA.—No, I didn't notice just where he lit.—Chicago Daily News. COL. D. W. TRIBBLE, of Madison, sold one hogheads of tobacco in Louisville at $9.70.

For Rent. Two houses in the East End, about 2 1/2 miles from Crab Orchard. One house has three rooms and the other five. Good out-buildings, never failing water and 200 acres in both tracts. SAM COCHRAN, Walnut Ridge, Ky. Eggs for Hatching. From pure bred White and Buff Plymouth Rocks, White Wyandottes, S. C. Brown Leghorns and Pekin Ducks—all at $1 per setting of 13 eggs. Every egg guaranteed fresh and true to name. A. E. ALBRIGHT, Brodhead, Ky.

It is pleasant to take, too, which makes it the most desirable and one of the most popular preparations in use for these ailments. For sale by Craig & Becker, druggists.
